

Covid-19 parameters

Excess mortality

We assess in this fifth post the excess of mortality (as % of increase vs average monthly deaths) in a representative group of countries per month.

Overall, Russia (ca. 31%) and Brazil (25%) are the countries with highest excess of mortality since the beginning of the pandemic. Besides, Australia (ca. -5%) and Japan (ca. -1%) are the countries with the lowest rate.

fig. 14.6 - Excess mortality per country

